

CAMMORRIST JURORS MAY GO ON STRIKE

CAMORRISTS INSIST ON BACK PAY FROM THE TIME THE TRIAL BEGAN.

VITERBO, Italy, July 7.—The jury before whom the alleged Camorristi are being tried for the murder of Gennaro Cuocolo and Signor Cuocolo threatened to go on strike yesterday and it was noon before they could be induced to take their seats and permit the trial to proceed.

A bill now before the chamber of deputies provides a special indemnity for the jurors serving in this case, but the extra allowance is made payable only from July 1. The trial began on March 11, and the jurors demand that the extra pay date from the opening of the proceedings.

To enforce their wishes they began obstructive tactics by absenting themselves for several hours yesterday morning and threatening to remain away altogether unless their wishes were granted.

President Bianchi interrogated Lieut. Marenzi of the carabinieri of Naples, the superior of Marshal Quiliani. The witness corroborated in full the testimony which his subordinate had given against the prisoners. The mother, Signorina Santini, the singer, testified that a theft from her daughter had been organized by Gennaro Cuocolo.

BERKLEY MAYOR ASSERTS FREEDOM

SOCIALIST MAYOR OF BERKELEY WILL NOT CONFORM TO ACCEPTED CUSTOMS.

BERKELEY, Cal., July 7.—J. S. Wilson, newly elected socialist mayor of Berkeley, struck his first considerable snag in practical politics yesterday when he successfully opposed the selection of a city attorney proposed by a socialist city councilman, and aided in the election of another one.

Mayor Wilson, following this act, was asked to appear before a meeting of the organization and explain himself, and further was quizzed as to why he had not presented to the party his resignation to be used at his supporters' discretion, according to socialistic usage.

"The meeting is set for the night of the regular council meeting and I cannot go," said Mayor Wilson last night. "As to the resignation, I do not intend to offer one."

Wilson's election attracted some comment because it was asserted that he polled a strong vote from the faculty and students of the University of California, which is located here.

MALAY'S DEATH WAS DUE TO BAD HEART

RENO, July 7.—"Death due to natural causes," was the verdict of the jury in the inquest held yesterday over the remains of Constable Frank Malay of Sparks, who was found dead at Steamboat Springs in a bathtub Tuesday morning.

The inquest was held in this city by Coroner Lee Davis. The principal witness was Proprietor Mawrer of the pleasure resort, who testified to Mr. Malay being in good natured mood when he retired, although he had been in bad health for several days.

Dr. Morrison, the county physician, testified to performing an autopsy. His opinion was that death was accidental, due to shock on entering the hot water, causing a weakened heart to cease to beat.

AN AUXILIARY YAWL IN PERILOUS SEA TRIP

HORTA, Azores, July 7.—The 20-foot auxiliary yawl Seabird, in which Captain Thomas F. Day of New York and T. R. Goodwin and F. B. Thurber of Providence, R. I., will attempt to recross the Atlantic, sailed for Gibraltar at daybreak yesterday.

The captain expects to make the passage in eight days. The Seabird sailed from Providence on June 10 and arrived here July 11.

SEVENTY-FIVE CENT GAS.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The aldermanic committee, working on a reduced scale of gas rates in this city, yesterday made public the recommendation which will be taken up by the city council tomorrow and fought out with the gas company. A sliding scale of 75 cents for the first year, seventy cents for the next three years and sixty-five cents for the fifth year is recommended.

THAW BURGLARY CASE REVIVED

TAYLOR, EX-CONVICT, MAKES CONFESSION, GIVING NAMES, TIME AND DETAILS.

CHICAGO, July 7.—Edward Taylor, an ex-convict, now in the county jail, has made a confession to the state's attorney, in which he gives names, time and much detail regarding the diamond jewelry robbery in the residence of Mrs. William Thaw in Pittsburg five years ago; the sensational Alberti jewel robbery on Milwaukee avenue, in this city last year, and a delivery plot for the release of Maurice Enright, labor leader, charged with the murder of Vincent Altman and William Gentleman. Taylor agreed, if released, to deliver the plotters into the hands of the Chicago "fence" who has bought much of the robber band's loot, and to try and locate the "cache" where the jewels have been hidden.

He was arrested by the police some time ago while coming from the home of a guest in the Palmer House. When searched, a key was found which fitted the room of Norman Struss, a New York diamond salesman. He was in the Alberti store on Milwaukee avenue when a gang of four robbers drove up to the store in an automobile, bound its occupants, and escaped with $20,000 in jewelry. Half of the loot belonged to Mr. Struss.

A week ago he wrote to the Pittsburg police promising to disclose the whereabouts of the Thaw diamonds. In response to this letter Lieutenant Robert A. Patten came to Chicago.

Taylor named Martin Thorsen as the moving spirit in the Thaw burglary and the Alberti burglary. Thorsen is now in the county jail under indictment for the Alberti robbery. He also charged Thorsen with originating the plot for the jail delivery of Enright.

His statement indicated a community of interest between the jewel thieves and the labor slugs, who, he said, were to work the jail delivery together.

JAP SHOTS AMERICAN WOMAN AND HIMSELF

SAN BERNARDINO, July 7.—In a jealous rage, J. Noga, a Japanese, shot Stella Smith, an American woman, early yesterday and then turned the weapon upon himself. Noga died from his wounds and the woman is expected to succumb from her wounds at any minute.
